DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (if known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This is a semi-detached, three story high and three bay building. The building facade is running bond brick. There is an elaborate cornice made of brick. The roof is flat and no chimney is evident. There are two entrances: one commercial and one resident. The building has one step which is white marble and no transom on the commercial entrance. Around the side of the building there are two porches made of wood. Apartment entrance has a transom made of glass and some decoration over the door.

There is a three sided bay the full height of the building on the left having three windows on the second and third floors which are one-over-one. To the right on these two upper floors is an additional one-over-one window. The sills and lintels are of brownstone on these windows. Decorative panels of terracotta tiles appear over each window. The store front, on the bay at the first floor is of vertically ribbed aluminum and features a large neon and plastic sign which conforms to the angles of the bay. There are two single pane windows on the angles sided with a central metal and glass door.
